Modules 1-4, along with completion of your “Graduation Notebook,” are required for certification through the Living Yoga Program - YR Track.

Module 1 (100 hrs). The 9-day Foundations Training must be completed through LYP at Barsana Dham ashram in Austin, Texas. Choose one of the intensive dates below.

Module 2 (20 hrs). Anatomy is available through LYP as an on-site 2-day training at Barsana Dham ashram in Austin, or on-line through the LYP website for free. You can also take Anatomy through a program of your own choosing, or even receive credit for Anatomy classes you have already taken, subject to approval by your advisor.

Module 3 (50 hrs). Asana classes can be taken with your choice of teachers in your community, or through workshops, retreats or conferences. All classes must be written up in class logs. Guidelines for writing class logs can be found in the student section of the LYP website.

Module 4 (30 hrs). Self-Study. Guidelines and suggestions for completing your self-study can be found in the student section of the LYP website.

Graduation Notebook. To graduate from the Living Yoga Program's YR Track you will need to submit a “Graduation Notebook” that includes a certificate of completion for Modules 1 & 2, along with your 50 hours class logs from Module 3, and your 30 hrs of self-study notes from Module 4. Please allow one month for your advisor to review your work and return your notebook to you, along with suggestions for improvement, or notification of graduation from the program. Information about the Graduation Notebook can be found in the student section of the LYP website.
